New idea for Fisherman's Gap sculptures

ONE of Britain's most respected sculptors has offered to design a replacement for the much criticised "waves and interpreted pillars" planned by East Devon District Council for Fisherman's Gap.

EDDC was intending to erect the sculptures as part of a wider "hot spot" scheme for key entry points to Seaton and the Jurassic Coast.

But the plan was withdrawn after

by Philip Evans

being formally opposed by the Environment Agency due to flood alleviation problems and criticism from residents.

Concerns expressed by objectors to the proposal included a ruined view of the sea and the possibility of storm damage to the sculptures and pillars.

■ THIS is not the first time a sculpture has caused controversy in Seaton. Pictured here in 1992 are local residents celebrating the removal of the much maligned 'Thingy', that was temporarily installed at Marine Place roundabout

Beer remembrance

THE annual Service of Remembrance will be held on Sunday, November 9th, beginning with the reading of the names of the fallen inscribed on the village War Memorial at 10:50am.

This will be followed by the two minutes silence and the sounding of the Last Post. Afterwards the church service will be held this year in the Congregational Chapel instead of St Michael's because of ongoing internal repairs.

Poppy Appeal organiser Peter Anderson said: "Following on from the memorable and emotional village march in August honouring the Beer Royal Naval Reserve, which marched off to WWI in August 1914, we are once again asking everyone who has family medals or have been awarded medals in their own right to wear them with pride on Remembrance Sunday."

Beer recently lost two of its four remaining WW2 veterans, Royal Marine Fred Rogers and Sergeant George Hookens of The Black Watch.

Plans for retirement homes submitted to district council

DEVELOPERS McCarthy & Stone have submitted a planning application to build a block of 42 retirement homes on land adjacent to Harbour Road, Seaton.

The site was earmarked for a 100-bedroom hotel on the regeneration site, but plans were scrapped when no interest was shown by potential hotel operators.

The news that McCarthy & Stone wanted to build more retirement homes in the town was met with a wave of opposition by residents who urged East Devon District Council to consider a more positive development for the regeneration of the town.

Last month a 900-plus strong petition was handed into East Devon District Council by the Positive Development For Everyone in Seaton group.

Presenting the petition, town councilor Steve Williams said the petition represented the views of the majority of Seaton residents, adding: "They are against a potential development of retirement flats and asked the council to honour promises made to regenerate the town and turn down the application when received."

That view was supported by Seaton district councilor Peter Burrows and county councillor Jim Knight.

McCarthy & Stone have applied for permission to build 19 one bedroom and 23 two bedroomed apartments with communal facilities and associated parking.

The deadline for objections to the plans is Saturday, November 22nd.

Young swimmers visit Olympic pool

SATURDAYS for Chard & District swimming club usually start with a two-hour training session at Axminster but last Saturday the Flamingo Pool was swapped for the London Aquatic Centre in the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, Stratford.

Following a visit by club treasurer Pat Riley and his daughter Molli shortly after the London 2012 pool was opened to the public, enquiries were made to the possibility of organising a club visit.

In line with their remit under the Olympic legacy to provide access on varying levels, pool organisers were happy to make four lanes of the 50 metre pool available to 50 or so Chard swimmers who made the journey to London.

Following their two-hour session, some of the swimmers were given the opportunity to use the same diving boards used in the Olympic competitions.

Swimmers and club coaches, led by June Turner, felt privileged to go poolside at the iconic venue where Michael Phelps and Rebecca Adlington had competed during the London games.

Tigers' fans angry over pitch delay

FRUSTRATED Axminster Town fans are up in arms over yet another delay to the Tigers moving into their new £2 million complex in Chard Road.

The club has given up its iconic ground at Sector Lane, where around 70 new houses are being built by developers Devonshire Homes, in exchange for a new stadium which will provide them with some of the best football facilities in Devon.

The Tigers were due to move into the complex, which boasts two full-sized pitches, floodlights, junior facilities and superb changing and social areas in the autumn of last year.

That deadline was extended to September of this year due to a number of problems relating to the drainage of the pitches but the club has now been informed by Devonshire Homes that they cannot take occupation until January because the drains have not been connected to the main sewer. Since vacating Sector, Axminster Town has used a number of pitches in the area, including Ottery St Mary, Feniton and Forton in what angry spectators call "roughing it".

Led by Alan Beer whose family has long connections with the club, the fans say they have "had enough" and staged two protests outside Sector and in front of locked gates in Chard Road.

Afterwards they issued the following statement to Pulman's View: "We, the supporters of ATFC, feel totally let down by the actions of Devonshire Homes over the building of our new ground and clubhouse."

"Axminster FC agreed to vacate Sector Lane as Devonshire Homes promised that we would only be homeless for one season and that we would be in our new clubhouse by November 2013."

Club chairman Ray Self, who has been the driving force behind the project, said he and the committee shared the supporters' frustrations.

TOWNS and villages in East Devon will fall silent at 11 am on Sunday when we pay tribute to the war dead.

But this year there will be even greater significance as we mark the 100th anniversary of the commencement of World War One.

The Armistice was signed on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918. Remembrance was born in 1921 with the simple Poppy introduced as the symbol for ever to be associated with those who made the supreme sacrifice and immortalised in the poem "In Flanders' Field" by a Canadian Major field doctor John McCrae, written in 1915.

The war to end all wars proved to be far wide of the mark with a second global conflict happening again just 20 years later. And there has been only one year since the end of World War Two when a serving officer of HM Forces has not been killed in action.

In recent times there has been a surge in support for the tradition of Remembrance all over the land, not least in East Devon where we have seen record numbers on parades and services in our towns and villages.

This has been prompted in part by recent conflicts and the role played by our Armed Forces in theatres of war around the globe, putting their life on the line in the cause of the eradication of terrorism, which surely is as big a threat today as the domination of fascism was 77 years ago?

Shamefully, we learnt very little about the world wars when I went to school but today there is a far greater understanding of the sacrifice made by so many among today's younger generation. And that has manifested itself in a bigger turn out from the young at the Remembrance events.

The 100th anniversary of the commencement of World War One has provided the media, television in particular, with the opportunity to graphically portray the obscene nature of human conflict and the sadness which followed the decimation of a generation of young men.

Nowhere is this more visibly demonstrated than at the Tower of London where hundreds of thousands of people have stood in awe at the display of 888,246 ceramic poppies representing a British military fatality in World War One. Whilst in London last week, I went along. A most humbling and solemn sight.

As regular readers of this column will recall, I am a huge supporter of the Royal British Legion who do such fine work caring for our service personnel, past and present, and their families.

Hundreds of volunteers have been out on our streets this past week, collecting for the Poppy Appeal. Every year they break their record. You can make sure this trend continues.

◆ MY apologies for using the word 'anachronism' (meaning a chronological inconsistency) instead of 'acronym' in last week's column. My only excuse is that I wrote this column on the train and then sent it back to the office via my own personal hotspot on my iPhone. The wonders of technology. Pity is doesn't correct grammatical errors!

Thank you to those who pointed this out.

SEATON

New idea for the Fisherman's Gap

ONE of Britain's most respected sculptors has offered to design a replacement for the much criticised "waves and interpreted pillars" planned by East Devon District Council for Fisherman's Gap.

EDDC was intending to erect the sculptures as part of a wider "hot spot" scheme for key entry points to Seaton and the Jurassic Coast.

But the plan was withdrawn after being formally opposed by the Environment Agency due to flood alleviation problems and criticism from residents.

Seaton Town Council backed the plan but two members, Val Christmas and Tony Woodman, asked for their objections to be recorded.

At the time Councillor Woodman was quoted as saying: "This isn't Disneyland, this is Seaton."

EDDC said that they intended to re-submit another planning application when "certain issues" had been resolved.

The offer for alternatives proposals has come from one of the country's most respected sculptors, Anita Lafford, who lives in Hertfordshire.

Miss Lafford is a distant relative of former Seaton town councilor Ronald Farlow, who lives in Scalwell Lane and has confirmed that he has written to Seaton Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick with Miss Lafford's offer.

Miss Lafford, whose work is much admired by the Royal Family, has suggested two lifesize bronze sculptures of a swan and the ichthyosaurus fossil found by Mary Anning at Lyme Regis.

Miss Lafford's commissions for the Prince of Wales and the Queen include equestrian statuettes that were seen during the opening scene of the Olympic Games.

HONITON

Highways cuts will 'bring town to halt'

MILLIONS of pounds worth of funding cuts to highways budgets could bring Honiton to a "grinding halt" this winter, town councillors have warned.

Members met last week to discuss Devon County Council's latest cost-cutting measures, which include plans to slash road gritting and snow clearing services.

Grass cutting and weed treatment in Honiton will also be significantly reduced under the new proposals, which aim to save £3.4 million countywide.

The council says that "massive pressure" on its budgets means it cannot cope with a huge backlog of maintenance work.

But town councillors have expressed their concerns that the reductions will lead to dangerous conditions for residents and affect the number of visitors coming into the town.

Speaking at the meeting, Councillor Vivienne Ash warned that the town could "grind to a halt" in the event of extreme weather, and that the expected saving of £50,000 represented a small gain for the loss of snow-clearing vehicles.

OTTERY St MARY

Fight is on to save hospital beds

CAMPAGNERS fighting to save in-patient beds and the minor injuries unit at Ottery Hospital will make their case to health bosses this week, at a public meeting expected to attract hundreds more protestors.

Community leaders have formed a campaign committee – under the banner of 'Save Our Ottery Hospital' – and members of the public have rallied round in support.

The Northern Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEW Devon CCG) has announced plans to reorganise its beds, with all ten at Ottery expected to be moved elsewhere in East Devon.

The hospital's minor injuries unit is also in line for closure and residents will need to visit the RD&E in Exeter for emergency treatment.

At a recent meeting in Axminster, health bosses revealed the changes will save £500,000 from the CCG budget and that, without taking such steps, one of the locality's cottage hospitals may be under threat of closure.

Last week, more than 50 people armed with placards gathered outside the hospital at just a few hours' notice to protest against the cutbacks.

Stable owners trying to 'move on' after two horses poisoned

by Kevin Fahey

OWNER Maureen Barrett says it is business as usual at the Stovar Long Lane Riding Stables in Beer despite the tragic death of two horses recently.

The horses died after being poisoned by eating sycamore leaves and the tree's distinctive 'helicopter' seeds. The poison causes severe breathing problems and then ultimately a heart attack.

The two horses at the stables in Beer were put down to save them from suffering further distress but the incident clearly caused owners who use the stables a great deal of worry.

"Everyone has been a bit edgy and concerned," said Shelley White, who has horses at the stables.

"We are making sure that the horses are being well fed so that they don't need to forage but for the younger ponies they don't know what is bad for them so we have moved them to other fields."

Mrs Barrett and her husband Ted have run the stables for the past 30 years and even before them the yard was used by local villagers to keep their cart horses.

"In all the years we have been here we have never seen this happen," said Mrs Barrett.

"It was a mystery to start with when the two young horses fell ill and we had to get a vet in from Tiverton (the Western Counties Veterinary Association) to deal with it.

"It is very unusual that the horses eat the sycamore seeds but it is a problem nationwide.

"It has never happened here before and hopefully it is just a one-off."

Apparently the problem was exacerbated by an extraordinary large crop of seeds last year which were then spread by the stormy winter weather.

The current mild autumn we have enjoyed also hasn't helped and scores of horse deaths have been reported across the country.

Horses eating the seeds suffer from the little-known equine atypical myopathy and there is no known cure for the illness.

"People need to be aware of this but we are now trying to move on," added Mrs Barrett.

Globally respected sculptor puts forward new plans

Seaton Town Council backed the plan but two members, Val Christmas and Tony Woodman, asked for their objections to be recorded.

At the time Councillor Woodman was quoted as saying: "This isn't Disneyland, this is Seaton."

EDDC said that they intended to re-submit another planning application when "certain issues" had been resolved.

The offer for alternatives proposals has come from one of the country's most respected sculptors, Anita Lafford, who lives in Hertfordshire.

Miss Lafford is a distant relative of former Seaton town councillor Ronald Farlow, who lives in Scalwell Lane and has confirmed that he has written to Seaton Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick with Miss Lafford's offer.

Miss Lafford, whose work is much admired by the Royal Family, has suggested two life-size bronze sculptures of a swan and the ichthyosaur fossil found by Mary Anning at Lyme Regis.

Examples of her work can be found in important collections throughout the world.

Miss Lafford's commissions for HRH The Prince of Wales and HM The Queen include equestrian statuettes that were seen in the segment of the London 2012 Olympic Games Opening Ceremony which featured Her Majesty with Daniel Craig as James Bond.

Other examples of her work include a sculpture of an Infantry man at Dering Lines unveiled by HRH The Princess Royal, a bust of the former Speaker of the House of Commons Lord Tonypandy and a full size sculpture of Lawrence of Arabia on a camel for the Felix Dennis collection.

Mr Farlow told Pulman's View: "I hope the town will accept Anita's suggestions. She is greatly admired all over the world, and especially by the Royal family."

Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick said: "I was very pleased to receive Mr Farlow's letter and I will be meeting him to discuss the proposal. It may be able to be included in the Seaton seafront enhancement scheme."

● THE rumpus over the sculptures is not the only controversy to rage over the area. In 1992 there was another art project erected on the Marine Place roundabout which became known locally as 'The Thingy' and attracted similar scorn from locals. A crowd of protesters celebrated with champagne when it was finally pulled down (see front page photo).

Website offers advice for residents

■ ON THE BIG SCREEN:
The website was projected in the auditorium

A WEBSITE specifically for the residents of East Devon went live in October during a launch party in The Beehive, Honiton.

Advice East Devon is a new partnership funded by the BIG Lottery Advice Services Transition Fund and the Cabinet Office. The website - www.adviceeastdevon.org.uk - aims to act as a "one-stop-shop" for advice on a range of issues such as housing, benefits, consumer rights, debt and money.

Advice East Devon's lead member is East Devon Citizens' Advice Bureau and other members include Age Concern Exmouth, Living Options, The Open Door Centre in Exmouth, The Olive Tree Association/Devon Grapevine and Westward Support.

Hilary Nelson of Advice East Devon said: "We aim to improve access to services, to empower people to solve their problems, and to secure essential support for the future of local advice agencies. We cover the East Devon District Council area and are particularly focused on extending access to advice into the rural areas of East Devon where residents may find it more difficult to access traditional means of receiving advice."

Land Rover drivers warned after double theft

LAND Rover owners in East Devon have been put on high alert by police after two vehicles were stolen in a short period of time.

Police in East Devon are appealing for information following two separate thefts of Land Rover vehicles.

The first theft occurred overnight between 7pm on Saturday, October 7th and 9am on Sunday, October 8th in Colyford. A Land Rover Defender, registration number K246CAA, was stolen from the car park of the White Hart Inn in Colyford.

Speaking about the crime at last week's Colyton parish Council meeting, PC Stephen Spearritt said it was very unusual to see thefts of cars as it was almost impossible to steal modern models without a key, but he warned owners of older cars to be vigilant and not leave keys on show.

A second Land Rover Defender was stolen on Tuesday, October 14th in Smallridge, near Axminster. A police spokesperson said: "It had been parked in a lay-by and was stolen sometime between 12.45pm and 5.45pm. It was later recovered having been abandoned on the M5 in Gloucestershire. Police are advising owners of this type of vehicle to be particularly vigilant and report any suspicious activity to police."

Anyone with any information regarding either of these thefts is asked to contact police on 101, quoting police reference CR/112885/14 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111 or report online at www.Crimestoppers-uk.org

Local Plan as 'absolute priority', says MP

EAST Devon MP Hugo Swire has publicly called on East Devon District Council to make the completion of its Local Plan an "absolute priority" and, in the meantime, ensure that inappropriate planning applications are thrown out.

Commenting, Mr Swire said: "Unlike some, I have never taken the rather irresponsible position of being anti-development. The fact is that for decades there has been a chronic shortage of homes, not least due to a growing and aging population.

"It is absolutely vital that we build more affordable houses, especially for young people in East Devon trying to get on the housing ladder.

"However, we must ensure that a balance is struck. We live and work in a wonderful part of the world and it is absolutely crucial that East Devon retains its beautiful landscape and unique character.

"A completed Local Plan is essential as it would be drawn up in consultation with local people so that they could determine where development should and should not go. However, many of my constituents feel that EDDC's lack of a Local Plan is allowing developers free rein which is leading to overdevelopment in areas such as Woodbury Salterton.

"Today I call on EDDC to make the completion of its Local Plan an absolute priority and, in the meantime, ensure that the green light is not automatically given to developers. Inappropriate planning applications must always be rejected."

Club offers help with safer motorcycling

AXEMEN Motorcycle Club in Axminster has set aside some of its event profits to help certain people get on the road.

Those aged 16–30 years can apply for financial help towards compulsory basic training (CBT) and modules.

A club spokesperson said: "We understand the financial implications of taking the test and then being able to get a bike or scooter on the road might be a stretch too far."

"But living in a rural area as we do, transport for young people can be essential to commuting to work or college – and a motorcycle, moped or scooter could be the cheapest form of transport."

"We are teaming up with Mark Widger of East Devon Motorcycle Training to help local young people who are finding it difficult to pay for CBT or Modules One and Two of the bike test, which is now a four-part test, that can be very expensive."

"We have set aside some of the profits from our yearly rally, The Slippery Slope."

"Anyone interested in our scheme or more information about the club, please contact Matt on 07799 175006 or Dave on 07832 901789."

Opening of community hub

COUNCILLOR Jill Elson has been invited to cut the cake on Thursday, November 13th, when Axminster Job Club hosts an opening ceremony for a community support hub, now that East Devon Citizens Advice Bureau has joined them.

The new hub will embrace not only regulars like the Axminster

Job Club, the Plough and Share Credit Union, the Careers Service, LymeNet and now the East Devon Citizens Advice Bureau, but also visitors like Learn Devon, Honiton Job Centre and East Devon Volunteer Support Agency.

It will be open as always every Thursday morning in the Methodist Church Hall in Lyme Road, opposite the Flamingo Pool car park.

The main aim is to spread the message in Axminster and the surrounding villages about where and when these services can be accessed, but also to enable more communication between all the local caring services.

Axminster schools triumph in netball qualifiers

THE A teams from St Mary's and All Saints Primary Schools have both qualified to play in the East Devon Netball Finals in February next year, to be held at The King's School in Ottery St Mary.

St Mary's, pictured right, beat All Saints after extra-time to take top spot in the qualifiers at Axe Valley Community College.

Ten teams, above, from six primary schools (All Saints, Seaton, Beer, Kilmington, Musbury and St Mary's) contested the qualifier.

Cards for Good Causes

THE Axminster branch of Cards for Good Causes has opened their Christmas shop at the top of Trinity House's Home-in-Style department.

Branch manager Anne Double welcomed and thanked volunteers before the shop was officially opened by Fields of Sidmouth (the parent company of Trinity House) director Cathie Spores. The card shop will be open from 10am–4pm, Mondays–Fridays, until December 11th.

Off to a flying start

THREE-year-old Shanjayan Gobu proudly displays his Gold Certificate, awarded for completing the Bookstart BearClub at Axminster Library.

To gain this certificate, he visited the library 60 times to take out books.

The Bookstart BearClub is open to all children aged under five using the library.

Sarah Jones of Axminster Library said: "Certificates are awarded after every six visits until children reach their 60th visit."

Flamingo Pool in TV battle for £50,000

AMBITIONOUS plans to install “life-changing” new facilities at Axminster’s Flamingo Pool have been unveiled, alongside a TV fundraising drive to help pay for the project.

Pool bosses say the “exciting” plans – to include water-based gym equipment – will help to improve quality of life for older people with health problems such as heart disease, cancer and mental illness.

The ‘Aquagym’ is designed to sit in the pool itself, providing a zero-impact workout, particularly suitable for the elderly, disabled and those with medical conditions that affect their mobility.

Experts suggest water-based activity can also relieve mental health issues such as depression, anxiety and stress.

But the Flamingo Pool team driving the project is relying on public support and has launched an appeal for the community to get behind the scheme by voting in a television event later this month.

The Flamingo will appear on the small screen in a head-to-head challenge with another project in bid to gain a £50,000 grant from the ‘People’s Millions’ – a partnership between the National Lottery and ITV.

Dana Haydon-Sycamore, head of fundraising for Flamingo Pool, said: “We are very excited that we have been shortlisted for this project and appeal to our supportive community to help us by voting, so that we can continue to provide this facility and to install the ‘Aquagym’ equipment, which will help change lives”.

The Flamingo Pool, a self-funded charity, was brought to life by a massive community effort, after the National Lottery pulled out of plans to fund the project.

And bosses are once again appealing for public support to help secure the grant money.

Steve Buxton, centre manager, added: “We are very excited about this project and the huge number of

By Jack Dixon
jack@pemedia.co.uk

people that will be able to benefit from using the equipment, improving the quality of their lives.

“We would also like to purchase equipment to enable us to run mobility classes for the immobile and elderly, our only limitation is funding.

Vote on November 25th

“We have been fundraising and applying for grants to enable us to move this project forward.”

Viewers will have the chance to vote for the ‘Aquagym’ project on Tuesday November 25th between 9am and midnight, and if enough calls are made, Flamingo Pool will bring the £50,000 grant back to Axminster.

Mr Buxton added: “Please help us to spread the word on Twitter and Facebook and tell everyone that you know.

“We can help change the lives of so many people if we are awarded this grant.”

The number to call to vote for the charity will be made available on the Flamingo Pool website on the day of the programme, and volunteers will also be distributing leaflets.

Breakfast treat for council workforce

MEMBERS of East Devon District Council's gardening and maintenance workforce were treated to a cooked breakfast at Hughsies in Seaton last week.

The breakfast was thank you for helping to tidy up Seaton in the wake of last winter's storms in time for the Britain in Bloom awards, in which Seaton won a silver gilt award in the South West regional section.

Albert Anning, who organised the breakfast, said: "This is why Seaton does so well in the Britain in Bloom competition."

"These are the workmen and women that cleaned the streets, did the flower beds and do many other jobs to make sure the seafront was cleared up after the storms."

Spooky fun at Pecorama

VISITORS to Pecorama last week had a 'spooktacular' time. Head gardener Teresa Cook and her team dressed up the tourist attraction for half-term, with particular emphasis on the Beer Heights Frights Ghost Train. One of the highlights of the ride was the Pumpkin Tree, which Teresa believes is the only one of its kind in Pulman's Country!

Adventurers set to take on NZ Great Walks challenge

IMAGINE running nine-and-a-half marathons in nine days – all off-road, through a range of testing terrain – and then add a 145-kilometre kayaking mission into the mix.

This is the challenge that three adventurers have set themselves, as they prepare to embark on an expedition to complete New Zealand's nine 'Great Walks' in as many days.

Even for New Zealand – the spiritual home of adventure racing and a mecca for outdoor enthusiasts from around the world – this is an extreme undertaking, and one that's never before been attempted.

The walks aren't called great for nothing. The trails range from 32 kilometres to 78 kilometres in length, and one of the nine isn't a walk at all – it's a 145-kilometre kayaking route.

All are intended to be multiday experiences. If you were to attempt them back-to-back, the minimum period you'd be advised to allow would be 28 days, not including travel time between trailheads.

To do this in just nine days will involve running over 400 kilometres and paddling 145 kilometres, through some of New Zealand's most epic landscapes, in highly unpredictable conditions, while fighting sleep deprivation, negotiating logistical hurdles and battling with physical exhaustion.

The team, well known for their previous record-setting adventures in Australia, are Ben Southall, Luke Edwards and Patrick Kinsella – collectively known as the Global Adventurers – and their whirlwind expedition has been dubbed the NZ9 Project.

It has been made possible due to support from Tourism New Zealand, Britz Campervans and New Zealand's Department of Conservation (DOC), who manage the nine Great Walks.

"We are excited to see this world record attempt happen in New Zealand," said Kevin Bowler, Chief Executive of Tourism New Zealand.

"We have commissioned the production of a documentary to capture the attempt and will then use the footage captured to showcase the natural beauty and diversity of New Zealand's Nine Great Walks in the work we do to motivate travellers to come here."

Ben Southall, no stranger to adventures, admits: "This is the most physically challenging expedition I have ever planned, by far.

"There is no current record for this challenge – because no one has been daft enough to attempt it before – so I'm excited by the adventure that lays in wait for us."

Starting on November 8th, the team's ambitious itinerary will take them from south to north.

They'll kick off with the Rakiura Track (32km) on remote Stewart

Island, before running the Routeburn (32km), Milford (53.5km), Kepler (60km), Heaphy (78.4) and Abel Tasman (55.2km) tracks on the South Island, and then doing the Whanganui River Journey (145km), Tongariro Northern Circuit (43km), and Lake Waikaremoana (46km) on the North Island.

"We are all average blokes," says Patrick.

"All of us have families, jobs and life commitments – but what we aim to do through NZ9 and our documentary is to show people that, no matter how busy life gets or what challenges you might be facing, you can always find time to get outdoors."

"And there's no better setting than New Zealand to illustrate how fantastic nature's gym is."

Over the past six months, Ben, Luke and Patrick have been preparing with gruelling training sessions – the ups and downs of which have been covered live on the Global Adventurers Facebook Page.

Followers can continue to 'go on the adventure' with the lads, once their world record attempt kicks off on the November 8th, by checking out their Facebook Page and website www.theglobaladventurers.com

Halloween party a spooktacular success!

■ CREEPY COSTUMES: Young Leaders in Service Rosie Manley and Jenny Webber

THIS years Halloween party at the Gateway in Seaton was a sell-out success with the hall being packed with over 150 children together with their parents.

With everyone in fancy dress, including some of the parents, it was a frightening sight. The hall was spookily decorated and the Gateway lighting effects and smoke machine were used to create an eerie atmosphere.

A ghoulish DJ played music and an inflatable bouncy castle was provided by the Seaton Young Leaders in Service.

With all the staff and volunteers in fancy dress and ghostly games to play, plenty of party food and drink for the children and a horrible story teller, it was a Halloween party to remember. The party finished with all the children on stage for the best fancy dress competition.

Doors now open at Slades Pet Warehouse's new premises

HONITON'S popular pet warehouse Slades has been welcoming customers through the doors of its new and improved shop, where business owners Sarah and Peter Scott-Allen have the shelves fully stocked with the very best in pet supplies.

The business offers a one-stop shop for all manner of pet supplies – from toys and accessories for domestic animals, to farm foods and bird feeders.

Slades continues to stock a range of coal, logs and smokeless fuels, deliverable to your door anywhere in East Devon.

"We are proud and pleased with what we have done so far – and the people who shop with us say the same thing," said Peter.

■ How to finds Slades' new premises

■ Peter Scott-Allen of Slades

The team is due to host two special pet nutrition days, in conjunction with some of its main suppliers, where customers can pick up some handy tips on healthy eating for their pets.

The first event, featuring staff from James Wellbeloved, takes place on Saturday November 15th, with the second a week later, provided by Royal Canin.

Wartime lunch at Hawkchurch hotel

THE Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch, near Axminster, is commemorating the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War with a very special lunch on Friday, November 7th.

The hotel usually holds a regular lunch club which meets on the first Friday of each month but the November lunch is always a bit different, usually with a high profile speaker visiting.

In 2012 it was former MP and author Anne Widdecombe, while last year it was Olympic medal winner Mary King. However, this year the hotel has something completely different planned with a special themed event. Anyone attending the lunch is invited to dress in a style to fit the period, while after lunch the local performers, The Luggers, will be playing a selection of music from the era. Guests will also be encouraged to join in a short tea dance at the end of the lunch.

Anyone wishing to attend the WWI lunch should contact the hotel on 01297 678349.

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

THE October meeting of Seaton WI was held on Tuesday 21st at the Methodist Church Hall. President Ann welcomed everyone, including four new members and two visitors. "Jerusalem" was sung accompanied by Mary Fone.

Up and coming events were then discussed including the quiz night at Beer in November, where it is hoped three teams will take part; a group visit to Sidmouth to see "Swan Lake"; the forthcoming trip to Salisbury and proposals for the New Year lunch to start the celebrations for the WI centenary year.

After tea and biscuits, Ann introduced guest speaker Diane James, an author of both fiction and investigative non-fiction, specialising in crime, spoke about how her interest in crime had started from a young age and how the social history of crime reveals some fascinating facts.

Diane then read the opening chapter of her latest book "Swimming in the Shadows". The vote of thanks was given by Denise England.

Flower of the Month results were as follows: 1st Ann Attridge, 2nd Denise England, 3rd Chrissy Palacio; and for the monthly competition: 1st Denise England, 2nd Julia Bealing, 3rd Sheila Rumble. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 18th at the Methodist Church Hall when the speaker will be Dawn Canham giving a talk on theatre costume. All welcome.

COLYTON

PRESIDENT Jean Hutton welcomed everyone to the October meeting of Colyton WI and reviewed the past month's activities, including visit from Magnolia WI to Colyton, where they were given a history tour of the town and then served with tea. Katie Darby and Brenda Clark were thanked for their help.

There had been a very good group meeting hosted by Colyford WI, when members were introduced to the various grades of cocoa and chocolate. Five members also travelled to Barnstaple for the autumn council meeting where the delegate, Katie Darby, gave her report.

Jean Hutton reminded members of the CWICS meeting for craft and chat and the book club, also the outing to the observatory and shopping trip to Bath.

Members participated in reading their choice of poems and stories for Halloween and then enjoyed tea served by Teresa Hattam and Katie Darby. Brains were teased with a quiz provided by Jacky Roberts Wake and arrangements made for participants to join in the quiz to be held in Beer in November.

After tea, members were entertained and intrigued with the story read with gusto by Jane Dickson, editor of Colyton's Church & Community magazine.

The competition for the table decoration was won by Jean Underdown with Penny Cogan in second. Jacky Roberts Wake produced a wonderful pumpkin glowing with green lights.

The next meeting will be on the third Tuesday in the month at St John's Hall at 2.15pm. Visitors are always welcome.

AXMOUTH

AXMOUTH WI president Denise Gates welcomed members and four guests – two from Musbury & Whitford WI and two prospective new members, Trish and Janet – to the October meeting.

It was reported that eight members would be taking part in a quiz at Beer, Pat Tresize invited members to join a book club and an outing to the theatre was discussed with a fish and chip supper.

Reporting on the Food, Craft & Skills group, Virginia passed around several beaded necklaces that members had made and an attractive miniature Christmas tree. Members made paper roses from old books on November 3rd (yesterday) and on December 1st will be making Christmas gift pockets to hang on the tree.

Discussions followed concerning the Christmas tree festival in Axmouth church during December and several members offered to decorate the WI tree. Pamper days at Exeter College and a coach trip to the Malvern Flower Show in 2015 were also discussed.

Marnie and Margaret, two of the visitors, showed members a beautifully-made patchwork quilt which is being raffled throughout East Devon WIs to raise money for charity.

Members had brought with them a selection of flora and fauna and proceeded to make more than 20 floral arrangements. These were then judged and the winners were Lorraine Hipkin and Sylvia Hall in joint first, and Sue Barnard in second. Flower of the Month winners were Lorraine Hipkin in first, Norma Sweetland in second and Jacqui Lewis in third.

The next meeting will be held on November 18th at Axmouth Village Hall at 2.30pm when the Devon FreeWheelers will be speaking. New members are always welcome, for further details call 01297 22560.

THORNCOMBE

ON October 14th, members of Thorcombe WI and guests from neighbouring WIs met in the village hall to celebrate the group's birthday and to enjoy a talk entitled "The Empty Space – my life as a working actor".

John Harwood is a retired actor, and entertained the ladies with snippets about his life treading the boards, illustrated with extracts from the works of Shakespeare, Dickens, Alan Bennett and others.

The evening finished with cutting a birthday cake made by member Margaret Retter.

The next meeting will be held on November 11th at 2.30 pm in the village hall, when member Barbara Barnes will give a presentation on "Patchwork Christmas Table Mats". New members and visitors will be most welcome.

Demonstration in cave painting

MEMBERS of Honiton Art Society were kept highly entertained by Robin Gray at their October meeting.

As chairman of the International Society for Spelaeological Art – art related to caves – Robin is well known throughout the caving world for his exciting underground paintings and demonstrated his work in oil pastels for members.

Working from a graphite sketch he made underground, Robin used Caran d'Ache oil pastels on black velvet pastel paper..

Robin kept everyone amused with stories of his caving escapades, and was happy to answer questions on painting and caving as he worked.

The next meeting of the society is on Monday, November 10th when Terry Harrison will be demonstrating "Landscapes in Watercolour" at Awliscombe Village Hall, 2pm to 4pm. All welcome, with visitors charged £2.

True enthusiast visits rail club

TREVOR Whitfield is a true enthusiast and showed members of Thorncombe Rail Activities Club slides of photos taken when he was still at school right through to the present day. Non-members welcome.

He took members on a tour of the whole country, peeking into loco sheds all over the place to see what treasure lay within, and views of the very many stations he has visited.

His tour-de-force was a family rover day where any child would travel free, providing the child brought along a teddy bear. On this occasion he took his son as far as North Queensferry on the other side of the Forth Bridge, and back to Taunton in one day. His knowledge of locomotives, rolling stock and railway operations is impressive.

The next meeting is on Wednesday, November 19th and is a talk by Colin Brading, entitled "150 years of the Metropolitan Railway", at Thorncombe Village Hall at 7.30pm. Non-members welcome.

On Saturday, November 9th, the club holds its annual Model Railway Exhibition. There will be more than 16 layouts, trade stands and displays with free parking, an all-day café and raffle. Entrance is £3 for adults and children go free.

THE business of the major churches in recent weeks is by no means finished. In his closing address in Rome, the Pope spoke of two temptations in particular – namely hostile inflexibility, and the other way to set aside what was said and examine the process.

The second course seems likely and this will enable the Roman Catholic (RC) church to embark on a year of discussion in preparation for their autumn synod. The RC faithful are known to be in favor of liberalism and there we must respect them.

In the meantime, others ensured that the prospect of Anglican women bishops took a step forward when the House of Lords agreed. Other decisions in favor are likely to follow. Despite this decision it was recognised that for traditional Catholics and long-term Evangelicals, it remains a matter of regret. A simple bill is planned to give effect to this legislation.

The former president of the Methodist Conference gave his support and the Bishop of Rochester said that it was envisaged in all dioceses there would be a bishop supporting the ordained ministry of women. Clearly there is some conservatism in the pews and all concerned are likely to be sensitive to people's unease.

English Heritage has produced a new Heritage at Risk list which features over 800 places of worship - 805 likely to be Church of England parish churches. Many date from medieval times, others were built in the 20th century and are assessed from needing urgent attention to others who will need it in two years. Help is available and for buildings on the register, grants can be applied for. Beyond the Church of England there are 82 places of worship.

Other churches have different problems and the Pope's efforts to make the RC church more tolerant will not be stalled by conservative bishops, it is reported. And it is noted that the RC church will not be more helpful towards homosexuals. One Cardinal has observed that the Pope has applied a policy of openness which was unprecedented. It is also hoped that next year will produce a more welcoming tone.

In the Church of England, a Bishop has warned that the church must make wholesale changes to halt falling congregations or risk withering away. The Bishop of Blackburn warned that the church must make changes to halt dwindling congregations and he offered a 12 year plan to attract young people. Such warnings echo others repeated in the West Country from the Bishop of Truro with the same concerns.

At Ottery St Mary the Remembrance Service is on November 9th at 10.30am in the parish church when representatives of the services and uniformed brigades will process. The service commemorates all who have fallen serving our country from WWI right up to the present day. After the service, wreaths will be laid around the war memorial. A young person from Ottery Royal British Legion will read the Exhortation.

A little earlier in the calendar, on Saturday, November 1st at St Paul's Church, Honiton, a service took place, by invitation of the Rector, with former pupils to mark the 499th anniversary of the founding of All-hallows School on the site of the present Honiton Museum. The Bishop of Crediton was the preacher and gave the blessing. The 500th anniversary falls on Saturday, November 1st - more details will follow.

Beehive: what are council playing at?

■ MAY I address your front page article of Pulman's View From Honiton, October 21st, reporting that Honiton Town Council has backed Beehive charity plans.

On October 13th, Honiton Town Council voted to give away the management of the building for 10 years to a company which plans to become a charity, thereby taking the control of that building away from the town council (in law they can only have 20 per cent representation).

I wrote to the council for their meeting on October 13th and voiced my concerns regarding S135 of the Local Government Act 1972, which advocates competition. I believe the lease should have gone out to tender and asked the town council to examine their standing orders in parallel with this agenda item to ensure that all is legal.

I have no idea whether this was done (once again it was dealt with privately and the press and public were ejected) but expected a reply from my letter to the town clerk. To date, despite my prompting, I have heard nothing from her. I am ready to be persuaded that the council's standing orders exempted them from the law in this case, but nobody has proved or explained that to me.

I noticed, by the way, that at the meeting no town councillors were prepared to become directors of the company to replace those who have resigned – and I can't blame them.

I am given to understand that the civic meeting room is being signed away by the council to the company/prospective charity. So now we have a town council which owns the building but has given the use of its own meeting room away for 10 years, but what happens if any of its meetings clash with a function the company wish to put on? I imagine the company will say this will not happen, but our town council is handing over its own civic room – I question whether this is legal?

And still the building is not yet paid for! This is an appalling state of affairs. I hope the builders are very patient, as we are given to understand that money pre-empted for other uses has been "poached" – and that came from the internal auditors – I was listening at the town council meeting where this fact was publicly read out.

I have no idea how much the builders are owed by our town council, but it seems to be many thousands of pounds. Whatever are our town council playing at?

Jill McNally,

Honiton

We must fight for hospital until bitter end!

■ WITH regards to the present situation of Ottery St Mary Hospital in-beds and also the Minor Injuries Unit, this is desperately worrying.

What I also found very odd was an extract in the October 9th edition of the Express & Echo, "stroke care to be based in Ottery", which I gather from Councillor Claire Wright, only came to light a few hours before the public meeting and had not been mentioned up until then. This in itself is an utter fiasco and probably even more worrying in a way because, although it may be a temporary save, according to the write up, it talks about Crediton and Exmouth.

Does this mean the beds will a) be taken up with stroke patients only and, b) how many beds will be made available for own Ottery and West Hill patients recuperating after a stay in Wonford?

I would very much like to know when this news came Ottery St Mary Coleridge Medical Centre because this is very relevant, but long-term we cannot allow our precious hospital to close and be sold off. The Clinical Commissioning Group must not be allowed to do what it likes.

This is an outrageous situation and it must be fought to the bitter end!

Someone needs to stand up to 'injustice'

■ LIKE my neighbour Mr Blagrove Pulman's View From letters, October 28th), I was heartened by your editorial of October 14th regarding Mark Williams, chief executive of East Devon District Council and further heartened by the editorial of October 21st and letters from various disgruntled residents of East Devon.

I have had many issues around EDDC and local Axminster councillors and have always found Councillor Paul Hayward supportive. I had one conversation with him where I jokingly suggested that maybe he should grow a sad goaty beard and then maybe he would fit in. But seriously, although heartened by Mr Tidyman's letter, I have come to feel it is more than just an "Old Boys Network", it is far more worrying than that.

Axminster's Councillor Andrew Moulding actually visited our development at Dukes Way, Axminster, in 2012 so was fully aware of our issues. He has done nothing to help. According to EDDC's website he is deputy leader of the council so I guess he is just part of the bigger problem or is impotent to control anyone working in planning enforcement. It's amazing how sensitive he becomes though, about a little cartoon.

In fact, the more you delve into EDDC and more you look at the arrangement of local council staff you find they are all related to one another. The Parrs, the Spillers, the Hulls. And I've just noticed that in passing, I haven't done a massive survey, so Lord knows how deep it all goes.

It is totally unhealthy, but we can only blame ourselves for being so half-hearted and disinterested in local politics. We don't need to be "gagged" by local councils' policies and we should be fighting against it.

I was absolutely horrified when I heard the tone of some of the councillors towards local people asking questions at the planning meeting I attended. The arrogance was beyond belief. I can't imagine who would vote for any of these majority members, and as far as I can tell, Colyton and probably Feniton have similar problems. So, who is voting for them?

When Councillor Moulding asked "what is Councillor Hayward is going to do with the recordings of the town council?" it was clear he didn't know what he sounded like. Perhaps several of us should turn up and record them? I can tell him why they need recording, if he'd like to contact me.

When I first started having problems in 2011 the MP didn't think the issues with EDDC were something he wanted to get involved in, but, even he has since become involved as even he can see that our treatment by EDDC has been, at best, negligent and, at worse, corrupt.

The attitude that you are not accountable to anyone, means that there is no check on behaviour of those you favour socially and it is easy to make someone's life a misery. See page 17 of <http://bit.ly/1E7Y2k9>

It appears to me that Mark Williams is not accountable to anyone. He was, as you know, asked who his line manager was by the select committee. He said he "doesn't have a line manager, he has a chief executive". On the EDDC website, this chief executive is him! So I presume he's his own boss. So, he is not accountable. What is even more amazing than this, is that Chris Ruane didn't seem to pick up on this.

I find it quite a joke that Councillor Moulding can quote code of conduct issues at Councillor Hayward since, in my experience, EDDC staff do not appear to know what it does actually say...

a) You must act solely in the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person or act to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, a friend or close associate;

b) you must not place yourself under a financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence you in the performance of your official duties.

That is not my experience. I don't think it is many people's experience but it does matter. Whether its about my personal experience with a bunch of bullies or whether it's about protecting people's homes from flooding, EDDC should be working for us and they are not.

I think it is clear that Mr Williams and most of EDDC's staff at the upper levels are an example of "Power Corrupting Absolutely". It amazes me that these people get away with it, but you only have to look at the papers to know that people can and do get away with awful things when they have too much power and when there aren't enough people prepared to stand up and be counted.

Some people have the attitude, if it's not happening to them, they don't care, and if they witness it happening to someone across the road they are just grateful it's not them. These same people don't usually mind benefiting from the efforts of others though. Surely, someone should have the gumption to stand up to injustice. But on the other hand, it has made me ill, so even I'm not sure it's worth it. It's worth considering though, that if nobody stands up against corruption and injustice East Devon, Axminster and the country can only deteriorate further.

A definition of class is not what you have in the bank, or what position you hold, but how you treat people. I believe Councillor Hayward treats people with respect and cares about the local residents and all the issues here in Axminster. I just wish there were more like him and it is our own fault that there aren't because we don't take enough interest in what's happening locally.

I can only imagine that those voting for the current majority have something to gain by it and don't want Axminster or East Devon to move into the 21st century. They don't care about the future employment of our young people, the mess Axminster is in or that the place is run by a tiny majority of local businessmen.

We need local people with no party affiliations

■ FOR the second week running we have had to listen to Councillor Andrew Moulding's protestations about impending cuts to Axminster public services.

He stood as a Conservative in the last election under a promise to make deep cuts across all public services with the exception of the NHS. Now this promise has been abandoned and the Tories resume their perennial attack on the NHS, Councillor Moulding has the gall to stand up and protest. Is he going to stand under this flag again or has he decided to leave the party and stand as an independent? You can't have it both ways; either stand up for the policies you represented at the election or quit your post.

Last week we heard that the library should be run by volunteers and now he says that we should wait until after the election to cut Axminster Hospital beds. If you were in any doubt as to a Conservative councillor's stance on public services, look at how they have failed the town over these two massive issues.

He finished by saying that maybe a solution was to increase waiting lists again to save money. Is this really befitting of a councillor to present this as a solution on behalf of his electorate? Disgraceful!

Councillor Moulding embarrassed himself at a recent town council meeting by thinking that it was more important for our councillors to be mannerly towards higher councils than to speak up for his town. His attack on Councillor Paul Hayward was childish and out of touch.

If our councillors hadn't been so cow towed, maybe it wouldn't always be Axminster that got selected for the cuts.

Time for a change at the next elections – let's get local people without party affiliations to stand up for the people of Axminster. Remember the election, Mr Moulding, we certainly will.

People of Axminster, vote for councillors who will air your views and not those who represent old-school allegiances and can't protest against higher councillors from the same party, or those seeking to jump on the UKIP bandwagon and make Britain a darker place.

Setting the record straight on funding cuts for elderly tenants

I THINK it might be useful to put the record straight about the way East Devon District Council is tackling the issues presented by a cut of around half a million pounds in Devon County Council's funding for elderly tenants in East Devon.

This is an emotive subject, so it may not be surprising that there have been some eye-catching headlines. But we need to keep a sense of perspective on issues like this and so it's important to understand the real facts behind the headlines.

Ever since County Hall revealed that the Older Persons Targeted Support Agreement would come to an end on March 31st 2015, teams from the housing service at East Devon District Council have been working with partners to minimise the impact that the cut of around £523,000 in the annual funding previously set aside will have on our ability to support over 1,300 elderly and vulnerable tenants.

EDDC's main aim is to ensure that those tenants who wish to continue living in their own homes are able to do so. And tenants will have a say in the type and implementation of any changes.

It's important to remember that the Home Safeguard alarm service and home visits by mobile support officers was never a free service. The costs were previously covered by using the funds provided by the county council to subsidise the service(s).

With that funding withdrawn, the choices are to stop the service altogether, charge a fee that covers the full cost, or find a compromise somewhere between those two extremes. Like so many service charges, this can be higher or lower depending on the level of service that the customer wants or needs. Our aim is to soften the blow of the funding cut as much as we can.

As a result of the work we have been doing with partners – including Devon County Council – we have come up with some alternative ways of meeting the challenge posed by the reduced funding. We are now consulting with our customers to see which of the alternatives they would prefer us to adopt.

Under the first option, the service would remain more or less the same but tenants would be asked to pay for the scale of service they receive. For the minimum level of service the cost would be just under £10 a week (including the £3.70 alarm charge).

Under the second option there would be a charge of £3.70 per week for the alarm and a separate charge for an enhanced housing management service, which would be covered by Housing Benefit for those tenants who receive this benefit.

Tenants could if they wish purchase extra support at a cost of £18 per hour (including VAT, a tax that many tenants would not have to pay). Under this option we would be able to offer a wider range of support, including accompanying tenants to doctors' appointments, helping with shopping and picking up prescriptions – all activities that we currently are not able to offer.

It is a fact of life that someone has to pay for services provided and the only question in this case is how to provide a range of services to answer people's needs without charging them more than they can afford.

In all, 21 sessions are being held across East Devon during November and the district council is hoping that staff will be able to canvass the opinions of around 700 tenants. The remaining sessions will be in Broadclyst, Budleigh Salterton, Exmouth, Honiton, Musbury, Ottery St Mary, Sidmouth and Seaton.

People tell me they want to remain living independently in their own homes for as long as possible. I want to see these services continue and that's why we have been exploring ways to make it happen. We want to see these tenants receive the best possible care at the least cost to them.

Cabinet Member for Sustainable Homes and Communities, East Devon District Council

More questions for Mr Williams to answer

■ FURTHER to your editorial comment that Mr Williams' visit to the Select Committee might not have been "a wholly enjoyable experience", I would like to draw your attention to some of the key points made by Mr Williams in his evidence:

1) He stated, for the first time, that rather than simply being "below standard" on doorstep canvassing (as reported by the Electoral Commission), he had in fact not undertaken any doorstep canvassing for the past three years. The Representation of the People Act 1983 does allow an electoral registration officer to undertake alternative canvassing providing that it is "sufficient inquiry". However, it remains to be seen whether "telephone canvassing" is "sufficient" (given that it cannot contact anyone who does not have a telephone) or whether Mr Williams has failed to meet his required obligations under the Representation of the People Act.

2) Despite having confirmed in a press release that he had decided not to "carry over" 6,000-plus people, he told the select committee that he had not deregistered anyone. It remains to be seen whether the select committee perceive this as Mr Williams playing semantics.

(The logical connection between these is that telephone canvassing cannot contact people who are not in the telephone directory, whereas doorstep canvassing can – so if Mr Williams had undertaken doorstep canvassing as required, then more people would have been contacted, more people would have re-registered and fewer people would have lost their vote.)

3) But most surprising, Mr Williams said (twice) that if a citizen turned up at the polling station on election day and found that they were not on the register of electors, then he would use "clerical error procedures" to get them added to the register so that they could then vote. The Representation of the People Act states that people can be added to the register at any time, but they cannot vote if they were added after the Notice of Election.

We have still to discover whether Mr Williams has in previous elections actually used "clerical error procedures" in this way, but if so then each instance of this would appear explicitly to be contrary to the Representation of the People Act. Either way, making a statement that he would act in this way in the future falls far short of the level of integrity that I would expect to see from an electoral registration officer and a senior council officer (CEO of two district councils).

I would also remind readers of a complaint made by Councillor Eileen Wragg last year that she had found 20-plus examples where residents of Households of Multiple Occupation (HMOs) had not had the opportunity to register to vote. The Electoral Commission highlights the importance of checking HMOs, and it remains to be seen whether Mr Williams has followed their recommendations or not.

It seems that there are now more questions that Mr Williams needs to answer.

Future is bright for Seaton Town Hall

■ WE just wanted to update you on the situation with Seaton Town Hall as there has been a newspaper article recently that has led some people to believe that our beautiful hall was being sold off or at risk.

We have had a lot of comments about this so thought it would be a good idea just to let you know what is actually happening.

We have been talking with EDDC, our town council and the museum to see what is the best possible solution for the hall and the community whilst juggling the needs of three users. Our leases are all up for renegotiation so it makes sense to be looking at this now.

It also makes sense not to rush in to something; there are many factors influencing the hall and how it is managed and it would be foolish to race ahead without time being given to consider all the options.

So all is OK, we are confident that everything will be OK and that the future is bright for the town hall and for all of us who love it so much.

We will keep you posted as much as we can, but if it goes quiet we are still here and just working away at it all. You can come in and see us anytime.

Thank you all so much for your support and we hope to see you soon at the many events we now have – if you look at the website www.seatongateway.co.uk you'll see we are well into next year with things happening so all is well and looking good.

POPPY APPEAL

LIVE ON

TO THE MEMORY OF THE FALLEN
AND THE FUTURE OF THE LIVING

11th November 2014 Wear your poppy with pride

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The story of the Poppy

DURING the First World War (1914–1918) much of the fighting took place in Western Europe. Previously beautiful countryside was blasted, bombed and fought over, again and again. The landscape swiftly turned to fields of mud, bleak and barren scenes where little or nothing could grow.

Bright red Flanders poppies (Papaver rhoeas) however, were delicate but resilient flowers and grew in their thousands, flourishing even in the middle of chaos and destruction. In the spring of 1915, shortly after losing a friend in Ypres, a Canadian doctor, Lt Col John McCrae was inspired by the sight of poppies to write a now famous poem called "In Flanders Fields".

Poppies for Remembrance

MCCRAE'S poem in turn inspired an American academic, Moina Michael to make handmade red silk poppies which were then brought to England by a French lady, Anna Guerin. The Royal British Legion, formed in 1921, ordered 9 million of the poppies which they sold on 11 November that year. The poppies sold out almost immediately and that first ever 'Poppy Appeal' raised over £106,000, a huge amount of money at the time.

The following year, Major George Howson, who had received the Military Cross for his role in the First World War, set up a factory off the Old Kent Road in London where five disabled ex-Servicemen began making poppies. 3 years later the Poppy Factory moved to its current site in Richmond, Surrey and today produces millions of poppies each year.

Such was the demand for poppies in England in 1922 that few were reaching Scotland. Earl Haig's wife established the 'Lady Haig Poppy Factory' in Edinburgh to produce poppies exclusively for Scotland. Over 5 million Scottish poppies (which have four petals and no leaf unlike poppies in the rest of the UK) are still made by hand by disabled ex-Servicemen at Lady Haig's Poppy Factory each year.

The Nation Remembers

REMEMBRANCE is part of modern British life, culture and heritage. It becomes a particular feature of the public calendar on or about Remembrance Sunday and November 11th, Armistice Day, each year. This is when public, private, formal and informal Remembrance events take place throughout the UK.

Millions of people each year stop what they are doing and observe a Two Minute Silence at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, commemorating the original Armistice of 1918 which signalled the 'stilling of arms' and led to the formal end to the First World War (eventually signed in 1919).

When we bow our heads in reflection, we remember those who fought for our freedom during the two World Wars. But we also mourn and honour those who have lost their lives in more recent conflicts. Today, with troops on duty in Afghanistan and other trouble spots around the world, Remembrance, and the two minute tribute, are as important as ever.

WWI Centenary

AUGUST 4th 2014 marked the 100th anniversary of the day Britain entered one of the costliest conflicts in history – the First World War – with fighting continuing until the November 11th 1918 - Armistice Day.

Almost everyone in the UK has an ancestor directly affected by the First World War. The losses were felt across every UK town and village as the lives of nearly one million men and women were sacrificed in service of the British Empire.

Remembrance Sunday

REMEMBRANCE Sunday, the second Sunday in November, is the day traditionally put aside to remember all those who have given their lives for the peace and freedom we enjoy today. On this day people across the nation pause to reflect on the sacrifices made by our brave Service men and women.

Remembrance Sunday will fall on Sunday, November 9th 2014.

Who the Royal British Legion help

THE Royal British Legion help serving members of the Royal Navy, Army and Royal Air Force, and they also help Ex-Service men and women, their carers and families. Millions of people in the UK and overseas are eligible to call on the Legion for help.

Their aim is to help the 500,000 most in need.

Half the people we help are below retirement age.

About The Legion

THE Royal British Legion is the UK's leading Armed Forces charity.

They provide practical, emotional and financial support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families.

Poppies in the Moat

FROM August 5th 2014 to November 11th 2014, a major artistic installation entitled 'Blood Swept Lands and Seas of Red' sees the Tower of London's famous dry moat filled with over 800,000 ceramic poppies to create a powerful visual commemoration for the First World War

Centenary.

The installation, in collaboration with ceramic artist Paul Cummins and theatre stage designer Tom Piper, was unveiled on 5 August 2014, one hundred years since the first full day of Britain's involvement in the First World War.

The poppies, a symbol of Remembrance in the UK, will encircle the iconic landmark, creating not only a spectacular display visible from all around the Tower, but also an inspiring setting for performance and learning activities, as well as providing a location for personal reflection. The scale of the installation intends to reflect the magnitude of such an important centenary.

On Nov 11, the last poppy will be planted. The flowers will then be removed gradually over the following two weeks.

Poppy Appeal Single

GRAMMY and Brit Award singer Joss Stone has teamed up with guitar legend Jeff Beck to record this year's official Poppy Appeal single.

The single is a soulful cover of 'No Man's Land (Green Fields of France)', written in 1976 by Scottish-born folk singer-songwriter Eric Bogle. Reflecting on the grave of a young man (Willie McBride) who died during the First World War, its chorus refers to two famous pieces of military music, 'The Last Post' and 'The Flowers of the Forest'.

Although the song speaks of the destiny of one soldier in particular, the song was chosen by Joss and Jeff because of the way it honestly reflected the terrible fate of so many.

Joss Stone said: "The song is about a soldier, Willie McBride, but when we started looking into who Willie was, we found no less than three men that it could have been - then we realised that finding him was not actually as important as what he and this song stand for, peace and the sacrifice made by so many."

'No Man's Land (Green Fields of France)' is available to buy now.

Royal British Legion Services

WHETHER it's families coping with the loss of a loved one, help at home to adapt to independent living, recovery centres for injured personnel, money and careers advice or residential care: The Royal British Legion are here to help.

Millions of people in the UK and around the world are eligible to access the welfare services and the RBL aim to help the most in need.

As the legacy of Afghanistan and Iraq combine with defence cuts, strains on public sector support and a peak in welfare demand from older veterans; the Service community is facing a perfect storm of health and welfare needs in the coming years. The Royal British Legion is here to support them.

The Dave Kelly Band at the Marine Theatre

IF THERE is such a thing as a British 'blues pedigree', then Dave Kelly sets the standard. Kelly is a blues craftsman – a journeyman who has served his time with the best.

Many know Dave from his work as a founding member of the Blues Band. But when they started back in 1979 he was already a seasoned blues artist with a reputation across the world. He's played with Howlin' Wolf, John Lee Hooker, and won the British Blues Awards acoustic artist of the year for five consecutive years. Today, after 21 years 'treading the boards' with the band, with his solo albums, duo tours with Paul Jones, and soundtrack work (for commercials and such projects as BBC TV's 'King of the Ghetto' and the Comic Strip's 'Strike!') Dave Kelly is firmly established as Europe's premier blues performer.

The man himself returns to the Marine for an evening of music with his very own group, The Dave Kelly Band on Saturday, November 8th. Doors open 7.45pm with the band onstage at 8.30pm.

Tickets are £13.50 or £11.50 (concessions). To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

JAZZ CAFE - Annika Skoogh & Philip Clouts

Thurs 13th Nov 8pm £8 (7pm for supper at £7)
Combining a potent mix of upbeat standards, swing and stunning ballads with a modern twist, adventurous Swedish jazz singer Annika Skoogh blends an effortless, rhythmical style with a warm soulful tone. With her love of languages, she adds another dimension to her performances by sometimes singing well known songs in different languages. She is accompanied by Philip Clouts. # TRULY MADLY MUSICAL SIDMOUTH Lions Club is delighted to announce that its Autumn charity concert this year will take place on Friday, November 21st in the beautiful Music Room at Sidholme Hotel in Elysian Fields, Sidmouth. This year's concert is in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support and, as it is for 'one night only', the Lions hope to have a full house for what promises to be a delightful evening's entertainment.

The title and the theme of the concert is 'Truly Madly Musical' and the programme features a great selection of memorable and less well known songs from stage shows, plus some two or three classical pieces. The musical shows featured include 'Blood Brothers', 'Carousel',

'Miss Saigon', 'Chess', 'Les Misérables', 'Finian's Rainbow', 'Funny Girl', 'Sunset Boulevard', 'Sister Act', 'Wicked' - and several more shows - so there should be something to please everyone!

The musical performers include accomplished singers Vicki Campbell, Val Howells, Catherine Moore and Sam Neal, plus Music Director Dorothy Worthington. Vicki, Val, and Dorothy are all well known locally and have performed in a number of the Lions' previous concerts at Sidholme; Catherine Moore, a more recent recruit to the group, has performed in many musicals at The Northcott Theatre and works with several Amateur Dramatic companies in Exeter. The very talented 'new boy', Sam Neal, has performed with Sidmouth Youth Theatre, Centre Stage in Exmouth, Exeter Amateur Dramatics, and has sung with the National Youth Theatre.

Tickets, at £8.50 each, are on sale in 'Cards@83' (Tel: 01395 579618), 83 High Street, Sidmouth - next to Lloyds pharmacy.

The Sidholme Hotel is in Elysian Fields, Vicarage Road, Sidmouth, Devon, EX10 8UJ. The concert commences at 7.45 pm but the entrance doors will be open from 7.00 pm. Liquid refreshments can be purchased from the Hotel and enjoyed during the Interval.

Sausage, Mash and Fireworks at The Old Inn, Kilmington

THE Old Inn at Kilmington is hosting their annual November 5th celebrations. The evening starts from 6.00pm with a range of sausages and mash available from a big buffet set up in the skittle alley. Soup will also be available with a free sparkler. With prices starting from £2.50 for the soup, this is a great family night out.

Whilst the restaurant is closed for that night, the space is given over to local singer and guitarist Phil Evans, this will be his third visit to the pub and is always great entertainment. The bars are open from 6.00pm and an extra marquee space is erected at the rear for cover, should the weather turn soggy.

At 9.00pm is firework time, and whilst there is no bonfire, the fireworks at The Old Inn have always been excellent. They can be seen all around the village, though Duncan is keen to point out that as there no charge you only get the best view and atmosphere if you join in the celebrations at the pub.

Local brothers take the leads in 'Jesus Christ Superstar'

TOM and Billy Matthews, both from Axminster, are taking the leading roles of Jesus and Judas in Axminster Musical Theatre's forthcoming rock musical at The Guildhall. Tom and Billy are no strangers to singing together, they have been appearing on local stages together for 15 years.

They began their acting careers with the Axminster Drama Club aged just 8 and 6 respectively, appearing in several pantomimes and taking lead child parts in 'Hansel and Gretel' and 'Peter Pan'.

They joined Lyme Regis Community Players between 2001 and 2006, during which time they played some of the child leads in 'The King And I', 'The Sound Of Music' and 'Goodnight Mr Tom'.

At the ages of 14 and 12 they successfully auditioned to join WOW Youth Musical Theatre, performing twice yearly at the Weymouth Pavilion. In only his second show, Tom took the male lead of Jimmy Smith in 'Thoroughly Modern Millie', a role he reprised two years ago with Bridport Musical Theatre Co. During their time with WOW both boys were given some fantastic lead roles including, Nathan Detroit in 'Guys And Dolls' (Tom), Moonface Martin in 'Anything Goes' and Fagin in 'Oliver' (Billy).

Their most recent show together was 'Grease' with Billy as Danny Zuko and Tom as Teen Angel with the Bridport Musical Theatre Co. in August.

Tom is also a member of Weymouth Operatic Society (WOS) and took the part of Peter in their production of 'Jesus Christ Superstar' earlier this year.

Tom and Billy both feel that the parts of Jesus and Judas in this very demanding Andrew Lloyd Webber production, are the most challenging roles they have undertaken to date. Both are very grateful to Axminster Musical Theatre for providing the opportunity to perform with the talented actors already in the company and under the direction of Nick Lawrence, who they have known and respected for many years. Tickets for Jesus Christ Superstar are available from The Archway Bookshop, Church Street, Axminster 01297 33595.

sive relationship with one another, their city and the sport they know is pushing them to the limits of what is safe. Twisting together the real and the imagined, 'FREE' asks what we're running away from and if we're ever willing to stop and confront what we've left behind.

Inspired by his on-going work with young people, David Lane's script has been developed in consultation with teenagers and speaks with the authenticity of their voices. David is Associate Artist at Theatre Royal Bath's the egg and has worked as a playwright and lecturer for ten years. His latest play, Stalin's Daughter, recently completed a run at Bristol's Tobacco Factory, where it met with critical acclaim ("Lane's writing has a hurtling power" The Times).

Chris Elwell (Director of FREE and CEO of Half Moon) commented: "I'm delighted to be working with David Lane again on this brilliantly exciting new piece. David's writing has extraordinary fluency and strength and I know the young people who come to see the play will feel it speaks directly to them. Alongside the rest of the talented cast and creative team we've assembled, I can't wait to start rehearsals."

FREE is a hard-hitting and powerful story of fear, identity and learning to move on that will resonate powerfully with audiences. A must-see for young people and adults alike.

Free will be performed TOMORROW (Wednesday, November 5th) at 8.00pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis. Tickets are £10, or £5 Under 16s.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety

Anxiety and stress can often create symptoms that in time cause illness. Anxiety is known to produce noticeable physical symptoms, such as rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, and digestive problems. In General Anxiety Disorder (GAD) and Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) the symptoms become so severe that normal daily functioning, Clinical Hypnosis and Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) are common treatments for stress and anxiety disorders and can be very effective in changing thinking and responses.

In contrast with CBT and in many ways very similar to Hypnosis Mindfulness and mindfulness-based therapies (MBTs) seek to change the relationship between the anxious person and his or her thoughts.

In mindfulness, the person focuses on the bodily sensations that arise when anxious. Instead of avoiding or withdrawing from these feelings, the focus is on remaining present and fully experiencing the symptoms of anxiety. Instead of avoiding distressing thoughts, opening up to them in an effort to accept that they are not literally true, just ideas and imaginings often related to the past or future events but no less unreal in the present.

By remaining present in the moment aware of the breath and the body, individuals can learn that the anxiety they experience is merely a reaction to thoughts. By positively responding to threatening events instead of being reactive they can overcome an mistaken stress fight-or-flight response, and take control of their life.

Kia offers a flexible rental solution with the launch of Kia Rental

LAUNCHING at 12 dealerships across the UK, Kia Motors UK Ltd., is now able to offer a flexible rental solution to both retail and business customers – Kia Rental. Flexibility for the individual customer is the key element in the Kia Rental programme.

Trials of the scheme have already proved popular for those dealerships with business customers. David Dench, Managing Director of Triangle of Chesterfield says Kia Rental offers a competitive choice. ‘Many of the businesses using Kia Rental have said that if our quality of service is as strong as that of our fleet sales, they would prefer to come to us as it out performs other providers.’

All models in the range are available on the programme with each dealer determining the exact makeup of their own individual fleet. With short holding periods and high preparation levels, the customer experience is similar to driving a brand new car.

The range extends from the Picanto - Kia's small city car, the frugal Rio, the ever popular cee'd range as well as the family focused Carens MPV. 4x4 options are covered by the Sportage and the larger Sorento.

Automatic transmission and factory fitted sat nav systems are available on selected cars. Some dealers have added tow-bars to all-wheel drive models to really create a flexible range to meet customers' diverse needs. Child seats are also available on request.

John Hargreaves, Head of Fleet and Remarketing at Kia commented, “The Fleet area is an important part of the business for Kia and focusing on what our customers want and adapting to their needs is an important part of growing the business.”

“Kia Rental has had a positive start, we've even had one rental customer who was so impressed with the car he came back and bought it. The overriding feedback from customers has been that service not price counts. Kia Rental reflects a grown-up attitude to business' fleet needs.” Added Hargreaves.

For full details on Kia Rental and to book online visit www.kia.co.uk/rental.

Tigers crash out of Premier Cup – Tanners triumph in table-topper

MATCH REPORTS

DEVON PREMIER CUP (LAST 16)

Holsworthy 5 Axminster Town 0

A DEPLETED Axminster line-up, ravaged by injuries and unavailability, bowed out of the Devon Premier Cup at the last 16 stage on Saturday.

The Tigers fell behind early on but felt they were denied a stonewall penalty which could have levelled things up.

As joint manager Keith Somers said: "It was one to forget. Everyone underperformed and their manager said it was the best they had played for a couple of seasons. At least it was a cup game."

The Tigers are back in league action at the weekend with the visit of Appledore.

D&E MATCH REPORTS

Devon Premier Cup 2nd Round

BEER ALBION 1 BUDLEIGH SALT 2

A DEPLETED Beer Albion put up a brave performance against South West Peninsula League opponents Budleigh Salterton, but went down 2-1 in a tightly contested cup-tie.

The Fishermen started without injured trio Morgan, Foster and Denslow and the unavailable Martin Adkin and this was compounded by having no substitutes on the bench.

On the positive side James Trewick returned for his first game of the season after a long spell out following ankle surgery.

The home side started brightly with the advantage of a strong wind at their backs and dominated possession without creating any clear-cut chances in a goalless first-half.

After the break Beer started to play some neat football and could have scored twice before James Melville put them deservedly ahead on 60 minutes after fine work by Chris Long.

Budleigh came back strongly and equalised three minutes later through Mark Lever after the home side conceded an unnecessary free-kick on the edge of the box.

The game was still in the balance and the key moment was when the Budleigh keeper made a brilliant save from a John Cooper header.

Budleigh were now creating good chances themselves and with just five minutes to go Calum Shipton slotted home the winner for the away side.

For Beer, there were good performances all over the park with Richard Walker outstanding at centre-back and Trewick making a promising return.

Player-manager Walker felt that his side were just as good as their Peninsula League opponents and only lost out through a couple of lapses of concentration at key moments.

COLYTON 3 EXETER UNIVERSITY 4TH 1

COLYTON took control early on against Exeter University and it was no surprise when Cal Somers latched onto a through ball and produced a clever finish into the bottom corner.

Somers scored again to put the hosts 2-0 up the break.

The students pulled one back after the interval but Nathan Maddocks weaved past two defenders before playing a one-two with Somers and then drilling the ball home from 18 yards to clinch the win.

AXMINSTER RESERVES 2 PINHOE 3

A SHORTAGE of numbers meant Axminster Reserves' joint manager Keith Taylor was forced to dust off his boots for Saturday's game at Forton.

The visitors moved into a 2-0 lead before late arrival Alex Shoot pulled one back after coming on as a 20th minute substitute for Taylor.

But Pinhoe restored their two-goal cushion before the interval and never looked back.

Elliott Bastin bundled a home to give the Tigers hope but the visitors hung on. Taylor felt his side were worth a point overall and was picked out ex-Farway United midfielder as his top performer.

EAST BUDLEIGH 1 BEER ALBION RES 1

Division Six

BEER Reserves earned an away point in a 1-1 draw at Dunkeswell against lowly East Budleigh on Saturday.

Facing a side who had already conceded 40 goals in nine starts, Beer took the lead through an Adam Brewer header and were well in control in the first-half. East Budleigh got the equaliser in the second-half and may have snatched a win but for a fine performance by Beer keeper Shaun Gould.

Assistant Manager, PJ Johns was disappointed with Beer's performance. He said: "Our performances against leading sides have been good this season, so it is difficult to understand why we have dropped points against some of the sides who are struggling a bit."

"The team do recognise however that today's performance was below par and that they are capable of better things."

SOUTH ZEAL 3 OFFWELL RANGERS 0

OFFWELL Rangers went down 3-0 against high-flying South Zeal.

Rangers manager Scott Phillips said:

"We knew we were in for a tough game. So went with a defensive line up and to looked to break on the counter. We kept it tight but they struck one just before half time."

"We went a bit more attacking in the second half and were looking the better team until they were given a dubious penalty that they put away to make it 2-0. We then conceded a third right on the final whistle."

The work rate was fantastic and I couldn't have asked for any more. Most of all I was impressed with how well the players took the tactics on board and applied them throughout the whole game."

Man of the match was Paul Dudley chosen by the Deer Park Hotel.

Round-up with Collin Goodwin

JUST two weeks after the tragic loss of footballer Nick Cole, his club BOW AAC won their first ever Premier game and were able to dedicate the victory in Nick's memory, and to his grieving family.

The game was still in the balance and the key moment was when the Budleigh keeper made a brilliant save from a John Cooper header.

Budleigh were now creating good chances themselves and with just five minutes to go Calum Shipton slotted home the winner for the away side.

For Beer, there were good performances all over the park with Richard Walker outstanding at centre-back and Trewick making a promising return.

Player-manager Walker felt that his side were just as good as their Peninsula League opponents and only lost out through a couple of lapses of concentration at key moments.

At the same time SIDSBURY UNITED who were promoted along with Bow, lost for the first time ever in the top Division, 2-1 at second placed HEAVITREE UNITED. Jack Furzer and Dan Tavendar were the Heavitree marksmen.

Premier leaders TIVERTON TOWN overcame another hurdle as they march towards promotion winning 3-1 at SEATON TOWN.

TOPSHAM TOWN beat BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 9-0 scoring eight goals in the first half. Ashley McDermid, Cameron Pow and Nathan Cooper all scored twice for the Tops.

NEWTON won 2-1 at the UNIVERSITY whose Tom Norton scored their only goal.

The second round of the Firewatch Devon Senior cup dominated Senior football but the tie between Henrys Cronies and Woolsery had to be abandoned after 52 minutes when one of the home team broke his ankle. Liam Carey, Niall Martin and Dom Gibbons were the Cronies scorers. The match will probably be rescheduled for next Saturday.

The upset of the day came at HONITON TOWN where EXMOUTH AMATEURS triumphed 2-1, and AMORY PARK RANGERS also caught the eye with their extra time 2-1 win at home to KINGSTEIGTON.

Tom Williams bagged a hat-trick as WITHERIDGE swept NEWTON ST CYRES away 5-0. Tom Edworthy and Lee Radford also scored.

LAPFORD powered through 6-0 against BRAUNTON with Harry Leach scoring twice with singles coming from Ben Tucker, Dan Tucker, Roger Hill and Josh Williams.

In the Devon Intermediate cup CENTRAL FC surprised FENITON 2-1 despite going behind to a Jamie Easterbrook goal.

TIVVY PARK RANGERS also shocked OTTERY ST MARY 4-3 with Darren Heale 2, Shane Heale and Liam Chard-Maple scoring.

PRIORY came from two down to win 3-2 against CULM, Anthony Holwell, Ben Bennett and Chris Phillips scoring Priory's goals.

COLYTON won the Division Two top of the table clash against the UNIVERSITY 3-1 and the gap between the pair is now down to a single point.

However NEWTON POPPLEFORD hopes of breaking their duck were undone by visiting CREDITON UNITED who were 3-1 victors.

EXMOUTH TOWN widened their lead in Division Three to ten points after beating second placed LYME REGIS 2-1. Decl Ellis put Lyme ahead but the hosts fought back to win with goals from Adam Pannell and James Sharkey.

There was an astonishing recovery by OTTERTON at UPLOWMAN ATHLETIC in Division 5 where the home side let a four goal lead slip away before getting a last minute winner.

The Otters' goals came from Kevin Pitt, Jon Dack and Si Tuley and that was after they had a man sent off.

West Exe Warriors U13 Seaton Town 3

SEATON Town have had a tough start to the new football season with five straight defeats, which has left them at the bottom of the Division One table ahead of Sunday's trip to face league leaders West Exe Warriors.

Seaton were back to full strength for the first time this season and started the match well with Reece McCabe opening the scoring. Drew Aedo-Smith scored Seaton's second towards the end of the first half which really lifted the team.

In the second half the game was much closer, but McCabe scored again and although West Exe did score a late goal Seaton were the deserving winners after a great team performance.

SEATON under 9s were back in action after a break playing two teams from Dawlish.

In the first match against the Leopards they were edged out 2-1 in a very close contest. A flowing move in injury time came back off the post denying what would have been a deserved draw.

Seaton were then beaten 4-1 by the Cheetahs, but at 1-1 at half time this was a game where the score line did not reflect how well Seaton played and the chances their good football produced.

Aaron Hale produced an afternoon of football that was full of flair and incisive passing, threading balls through the eye of a needle to create numerous chances for the forwards, but it was one of those days.

Leo Gribble scored both Seaton goals, a good reward for his tireless running and tackling.

Kieran Jaycock was outstanding in goal and Harvey Green a defensive rock.

SEATON U11 played their toughest game of the season to date against a talented Avishayes U12 team.

Seaton started well and made the early breakthrough when Josh Tait calmly slotted the ball past the advancing keeper.

Tait then beat beating the offside trap to put Seaton 2-0 up and completed his hat-trick in the 30th minute after some great work from Ben Driver.

Seaton's defensive unit was tested time and again but held out largely thanks to Beck Finnemores superb work in goal. Avishayes scored right on half time to make it 3-1 at the break.

A generous penalty coolly dispatched by Jack White made it 4-1 ten minutes into the second half.

Avishayes did grab a late goal and the game ended 4-2.

Supporters player went to Joe Richardson and coaches player to Tait.

Seaton Town U16 4 Pinhoe Spartans 4

SEATON came back from a 3-1 down at half time to equalise with a penalty at the end to earn a draw.

Seaton were first to score with a fabulous goal from Lewis Cottam. But they then let down their guard and Pinhoe scored twice in quick succession before adding a third before the half time whistle.

The second half saw a more determined side appear for Seaton and even with the size of the Pinhoe defence the Seaton boys came back to even the score.

Man of the match for Seaton was Pete Smith.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

TUESDAY MIXED

IT's Chivers Trophy time again - Greensome Stableford - drawn for playing partners.

Thirty four members participated this week and the winning score of 39pts was recorded by Su Calver playing with Ken Wood.

In second place with 37pts were Stephanie and Bob Barnes. Janet Hughes playing with Club Vice Captain Stewart Slater took 3rd with 36pts on c/b from 4th place Liz Rogers and John Dickinson.

This was Stephanie and Bob's last week of organising the Tuesday Mixed. A presentation on behalf of the Tuesday Mixed Players of flowers, chocolates and a card was made by Stephanie to thank Lynn the Club House Manager with our best wishes for when she retires at the end of the month.

Seniors Section

ALTHOUGH they played in better than expected weather with the temperature hovering around 18 degrees some of the seniors still had to find excuses for poor scores in their monthly stableford competition.

There was a bit of a breeze but it was almost Summer weather however just a few players took advantage.

The best player of the day was Ashley Murray whose 28 handicap is now just a memory. He scored 43 points to top division two, just one point ahead of Ken Wood. Robin Mitchell, David Ive and Howard Pritchard took the other prizes with scores of 36 points.

Division one was won by Max Pipe with 37 points. Jim Wallis made 35 and the other prize winners were Mike Ward, Eric Short and Peter Morgan.

AXE CLIFF with Helen Kenworthy

Seniors

I DON'T know of anything that makes Senior golfers quake more at the knees than the words "It's a medal round".

Players who usually cope with all kinds of problems suddenly find that they can't drive, chip or putt when normally these aspects of their game come quite easily. But a medal round on Halloween day gave everyone a fright at Axe Cliff last Friday. Consequently the scores were not great and most of the players experienced some kind of horror during their game.

You couldn't blame your bad play on the weather or the condition of the course which were both exceptional for this time of year - it just had to be you and that medal card that made life difficult.

The winner, Nick Povey, with a net 71 was obviously immune to any difficulties and was rewarded with a cut in handicap.

Second and third places had to be decided on count back rules with Mike Jamieson just beating Rob Heard.

There were only two 2s by Tony Strong and Dave Bruce but all the rest could only moan about medal cards and missed chances.

The good news is that they can all look forward to another medal round in a fortnight's time but by that time all the spooks, ghosts and gremlins will have disappeared for another year so they will have to devise some other excuses.

The Ladies played the Lorraine Cup on October 22nd with 1st place going to Glenda Board, 2nd was Lesley Crawford and 3rd Helen Kenworthy.

Meanwhile, the Seniors were given a real golfing lesson when they played their annual Tic Toc Trophy match against the Axe Cliff Ladies.

Playing in a Foursomes format the ladies showed exceptional skill and expertise as they won all but one of the seven matches. To save the men's blushes they knew they were up against it when the draw was made and the rules and the stroke allowances were announced.

Because of many years of winning, the Seniors had to give 11 courtesy shots as well as half the difference between the pairs.

Needless to say even the most stalwart of the Seniors' team found giving 24 shots more than a little daunting and the final results showed some crushing victories for the ladies.

Some consolation comes when they meet next year and the Seniors only have to give ten courtesy strokes.

The result against the Ladies must have spurred the Seniors for their last friendly match of the season against Taunton Vale. A win by five matches to one was paled by the impact of the occasion.

The Taunton team will not be playing next year as their course is closing and, although their members put on a brave face, it was evident that they were all playing under a cloud of despondency.

When you know that the friends with whom you have been playing golf for so long will no longer be meeting together as they all go to different clubs to continue their golf, you will naturally feel a tinge of sadness and it obviously affected their game.

Swimmers enjoy Olympic flavour

SATURDAYS for Chard & District swimming club usually start with a two-hour training session at Axminster but last Saturday the Flamingo pool was swapped for the London Aquatic Centre in the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, Stratford.

Following a visit by club treasurer Pat Riley and his daughter Molli shortly after the London 2012 pool was opened to the public, enquiries were made to the possibility of organising a club visit.

In line with their remit under the Olympic legacy to provide access on varying levels, pool organisers were happy to make four lanes of the 50 metre pool available to 50 or so Chard swimmers who made the journey to London.

Following their 2 hour session, some of the swimmers were given the opportunity to use the same diving boards used in the Olympic competitions.

Swimmers and Club coaches, led by June Turner, felt privileged to go poolside at the iconic venue where Michael Phelps and Rebecca Adlington had competed during the London games.

It will be back to their regular haunt at the flamingo pool tomorrow. To get in touch with chard and district swimming club visit their website at www.chardswimming.org.uk/

David's efforts recognised at AGM

SEATON Bowling Club held its Annual General Meeting last Thursday.

Roger Woolland was there from the Seaton Carnival Club to receive a cheque for £220. This money is usually raised during Carnival week with a bowls drive on the bank holiday Monday.

However, this year it was a complete wash out so the club arranged to raise money from an alternative club competition.

Liz Livingstone from The Seaton Home Nursing Service, the club's nominated charity for 2014, was presented with a cheque for £325. This money is raised over the year by holding raffles and donations on the Captain's day.

The final presentation was the 'Tesco Member of the year award', which was presented to David Ford, for all his hard work on the selection committee and coaching new members.

Local success in East Devon Community race series

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

THREE Honiton Running Club members travelled to South Molton on Sunday, October 24th to take part in the SOUTH MOLTON STRUGGLE which is a multi-terrain 7.8 mile run based at the Rugby Club.

Money raised went to North Devon Hospice and the winner was Paul Cooke in a time of 45 minutes 35 seconds. Mark Dallyn was first back for Honiton coming 55th in 1:00:21.

Shane and Michala Hudd had run most of the race together and Shane finished in 1:07:28 in 89th place with Michala finishing in 1:08:34 and 96th place. There were 197 finishers.

Last Saturday Honiton runners took part in the YARCOMBE YOMP - the last race in this year's East Devon Series.

Runners could choose to complete one lap of five miles or go on for the full race of 10 miles by running the route twice.

The race was won by Axe Valley Runner's Matt Clist in a new course record of 1:05:49. First back for Honiton was Ian Stewart coming 4th in 1:10:51.

This was Ben Stone's first go at this race and he came 7th in 1:13:59 while Rod Ingilis flew round the course to come 18th in 1:21:43 well ahead of Steve Davey who came just one place later in 1:24:40.

Judy Davey was the sole Honiton lady out and she came 24th overall in 1:29:28 winning a bottle of cider for coming 3rd lady.

Tim Wigram completed the line-up coming 30th in 1:32:50 winning a sprint to the line with an AVR runner. There were 66 finishers.

With the 10 mile race it is tempting for some to finish early. Roger Saunders took this option coming 7th in the five-mile race in 45:36.

The race was won by AVR's Ollie Caute who finished in 35:08 having beaten Honiton's Iain Ross at a sprint finish. There were 26 finishers. Thanks to all the organisers and landowners but special thanks to Robin Carter for another great event.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

GRAHAM Newton ran the DUBLIN MARATHON on Monday, October 27th in lovely running conditions with terrific Irish support around the course which was run around the city through parks and along the River Liffey.

Graham finished in a brilliant time of 3:23:16 taking almost two minutes off his previous PB to win the over 65 men's veteran category, coming 1:20:22 overall out of a field of 12,500 runners.

Simon Gould was the only AVR representative at the HEREPATH HALF, 13.7m trail run around the Blackdown hills near Taunton.

The first four out of six miles were climbing with an ascent of over 800 feet. Simon finished 28th out of a field of 150 in 1:53:10.

A record entry for the YARCOMBE YOMP saw 17 Axe Valley Runners taking part in the five and 10-mile events.

Starting at the village hall, the route meanders around the beautiful Blackdown Hills for five miles before returning steeply down-hill to the village.

Those competing in the 10-mile yomp then get the pleasure of doing it all over again!

The winner, and first AVR runner, in the 10-mile event - also breaking the course record by over two minutes - was Matt Clist in 1:05:49.

Ian Apps was 9th, 1:17:29 and Joshua Hopson 12th, 1:18:29. First lady was Eleanor Wood, 20th 1:25:59 followed by Roger Bramley 23rd 1:28:58, Steve Reynolds 31st 1:32:50 and Margaret Pearce 33rd 1:33:26.
